

Sustainability Pillar

- Historically, this pillar has reflected traditional financial strategies, advocated for safety net supplemental funding, and managing relationship with Alameda County.
- The definition is broad. Sustainability is obtained by becoming a reliable organization over all aspects of the work we do, including quality, safety, operations, and employee/physician engagement. It's what we wish to become.
- Consider eliminating this pillar with options being Financial Reliability and/or Growth